

GURUKUL SCHOOLS WELCOMES THE HOME COMING OF VARIOUS TEACHERS

New teachers and staff members of various Gurukul schools were invited with warm welcome and sharing with all the staff of the school. After introductions and celebrations, Principal and coordinators shared the Gurukul mission and vision for their schools. Various systems and processes followed in Gurukul schools were explained in detail. These include classroom management, learning processes, teaching methodologies, use of CRT for curriculum coverage, student assessments, student disciplining and importance of English proficiency. The employee benefits and the joy of working in Gurukul schools was also shared in the HR presentations. Few schools did unique programs on "Story Telling", "English LSRW skills" and "lesson planning".

KARADI PATH TRAINING OFFERED TO ALL KG TEACHERS

In an effort to ensure all our Equitas Gurukul students are fluent in English language, we have introduced "Karadi Path" program in all schools. As an Annual event, training is offered to all KG and few primary class teachers on this program. Mr. Arunkumar M.A (Psychology), a senior trainer conducted workshops in all schools to help learn the most effective ways of teaching language for young children. Teachers enacted and enjoyed the methods shared in the program. We are sure that this enthusiasm will bring about great change in English fluency of our children.

BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY

Equitas staff collected clothes from many branches in Pune area and donated more than 100 dresses to mentally challenged children and women on the day of "MOTHER'S DAY" at Mother Teresa(NGO) orphanage at Bhoomkar Chowk. All the clothes were gathered at Kalewadi branch and packed neatly in plastic carry bags and handed over to the orphanage. The orphanage thanked Equitas staff for this noble activity.
